Work

RECOGNITION EVENT

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 28, 2009

7:30 A.M. TO 9:00 A.M.

LITTLE AMERICA HOTEL

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH

“We are in the midst of historic market changes that will be taught in economics textbooks the next 30 years. We’ve barely finished writing one chapter before the next is writing itself.”

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

DAVID KOTOK

Join us as internationally recognized economist David Kotok shares his widely respected insights concerning the current economic climate and financial markets that are making history today. This is an opportunity to hear Mr. Kotok speak to the history, policies, and trends that have shaped today’s economic climate as well as his insights on the chapters yet to be written.

Mr. Kotok is Chief Investment Officer of Cumberland Advisors, which he co-founded in 1973. He is a frequent contributor to CNBC and is often quoted in publications like The Wall Street Journal and Barron’s. His yearly fishing retreat with thirty-five key economists, money managers, and analysts is recognized as a gathering where many of the nation’s key financial and economic decisions are discussed and made.

EVENT EMCEE

STEPHANI VICTOR

After Stephani Victor’s inspiring speech at last year’s Dignity through Work event, she joins us again this year as the event emcee. After losing both her legs in 1995 in an accident, Stephani has gone on to become a world-class athlete, documentary filmmaker, and motivational speaker. As a renowned Paralympian athlete, she won a slalom gold medal at the 2006 Torino Paralympic Games and a downhill bronze medal at the 2002 Salt Lake City Paralympic Games.
